Encounters with the Axion

Pierre Sikivie
Distinguished Professor of Physics, University of Florida
Wednesday, 7 October 2020, 4:00pm EDT

Abstract

The notion of Peccei-Quinn symmetry with its concomitant axion has been astonishingly fertile, with surprising connections to most subfields of physics. A personal account is given of events, insights and experiments that contributed to its history so far.